

I AM

A compilation of poems written by students from Joseph Clarke School

I am

I am anything you believe in.
Through your crust filled eyes, despite me not being real, you can feel me,
hear me and sometimes even smell
me.

I can be bad or good.
I can either wake you up screaming
or give you an idea to do something.
I can be very strange, and sometimes
I can also be filled with unsolved mysteries.

I am a dream.

-Reece-

Ocean

I am a liquid Sapphire.

I am mysterious and majestic.

I am covering most of our world.

I can send tidal waves.

I have lots of myths about me.

I have garbage in me.

I am mistreated and disrespected.
